

More About Your Stay at JCFR

What to Bring: (Please feel free to email or call with questions.)

- Musical instruments, scripts, jokes, stories, music or items that will help you perform a talent for the show on Saturday, if you're interested.
- Walkie-talkies or baby monitors are helpful for family communication.
- Bug repellent, sunscreen, and refillable water bottles.
- Alarm clock, and perhaps a fan for white noise. Coffee mug (we suggest a reusable one rather than Styrofoam).
- Rainy day activities (games and crafts to share) just in case.
- Sports equipment: remember the tennis courts and baseball field. Balls and Frisbees are always handy. Swimsuits, towels, and floats are a good idea.
- Parents with preschool children, please bring a few labeled toys to share in the nursery/preschool during the morning sessions. Nursery is in the Solarhouse upstairs lounge.
- Every family with children should bring at least one large package of individually packaged snacks (about 20) and a package of small, individual drinks (water or juice). If you have a large family consider bringing extra. These are to be dropped off in the Meetinghouse after you arrive.
- Adults should bring one or two deluxe snacks to share during evening discussions. Bringing (non-alcoholic) drinks to share is optional. They can be dropped off in the Meetinghouse to be distributed later.

What you do not need:

- Camp provides sheets, blankets, towels, washcloths and even those little cute soaps.
- Extra mattresses and bedding will be provided by the camp for those with more than 4 sleeping in a room. Please let us know if you want to have any extras put in your room.
- They even have a few Pack-n-Plays for infants. Ask for one if you need it.
